Choose from the ready-to-use copy below to make a quick introduction.

Option 1

Hey [Name],

Wanted to introduce you to some people that I trust—Randy + Renée at Seven-Figure Profits. They partner with high-impact creatives, athletes and 7-Figure business owners who are outwardly successful... but inwardly overwhelmed.

If you've ever felt like you're holding it all together while secretly bracing for the next tax bill, burnout wave, or financial curveball they get it. Their work goes beyond strategy. They restructure your tax plans and plug profit leaks. But they also support the nervous system so their clients can breathe again and sleep with peace.

You don't have to be "on" with them. Their work is calming, discreet, and profoundly effective. If you're curious, I'd be happy to connect you.

Option 2
